DEP awards grants worth $1.4 million for recycling assistance

The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection, today, awarded grants worth $1.452 million to 32 recipients through the agency's REAP Recycling Assistance Grants program.

DEP Cabinet Secretary Randy Huffman presented the 2013 grants during a ceremony at the DEP's Charleston headquarters. Grants were awarded to state solid waste authorities, county commissions, municipalities, private industries and nonprofit organizations.

Funding for the Recycling Assistance Grants Program is generated through the $1 assessment fee per ton of solid waste disposed at in-state landfills and is provided by WV Code 22-15A-19(h) (1). REAP is the DEP's Rehabilitation Environmental Action Plan program.
